THE SACRED RHYTHM OF TIME: Life is a mixed world of dualities — good and evil, wealth and poverty, knowledge and ignorance, pleasure and pain, joy and sorrow, etc.

The Hindu calendar also reflects natural dualities. A month is divided into two fortnights: Sukla Paksha, the bright fortnight and Krishna Paksha, the dark. Similarly, a year is divided into two periods: Uttarayanam and Dakshinayanam. Uttarayanam extends from the Tamil month of Thai to Aani (mid January to mid July), while Dakshinayanam spans from Adi to Margazhi (mid July to mid January). Uttarayanam is regarded as a highly auspicious time, symbolising the sun's northward journey and associated with spiritual advancement and positive growth.

In line with these divisions, a day is split into three parts — morning, afternoon and evening — as explained in a discourse by Lanka Sri. Jeyaraj. Each period is influenced by one of the three gunas or qualities of nature. The morning is associated with "Sattvika qualities" — purity, calmness and clarity. The afternoon is dominated by "Rajasa qualities" which represent passion. The evening reflects "Tamasa qualities" symbolising inertia, withdrawal and rest. The meeting points between the parts of the day are known as 'Sandhi.' There are three Sandhis in a day: the end of morning and the beginning of afternoon, the end of afternoon and the beginning of evening and the end of evening and the beginning of the next morning. Many traditions regard the transitional "Sandhi period" as an ideal time for meditation, worship and inner reflection. It is believed that those who pray early in the morning receive blessings and strength that support them through the day. — In The Hindu

Man stages carjacking to avoid shopping

Moscow: Police in Krasnoyarsk reported the bizarre case of a local man who allegedly damaged his own car to fake a carjacking so that he did not have to go shopping with his wife. Though the incident reportedly took place in April, the regional Police only disclosed it in October.

A woman called the emergency number to report that her husband's Toyota Corolla had been stolen from the parking lot near their home. She later called back to report that they had found the car on Otdykha Island, in Krasnoyarsk.

When Police arrived to inspect the stolen vehicle, they found signs of forced entry and a damaged ignition switch, but after interrogating the husband, officers began to suspect that he wasn't telling the truth.

After analysing all the evidence, the Police concluded that the man had staged the carjacking as an excuse to get out of a shopping trip with his wife.

Spends huge money for fake 8-pack abs!

Beijing: Unable to develop his abs the natural way, a Chinese influencer spent over half a million dollars on hundreds of hyaluronic acid shots to build himself a fake 8-pack.

The fashion and beauty content creator who uses the name Andy Hao Tienan on social media recently shocked his fans by revealing that 20 per cent of his body contains hyaluronic acid.

The young influencer went viral last month when he spent four million yuan ($ 5,62,000) to have 40 doses of acid injected into his shoulders, collarbones, chest and abdomen. Experts warn that hyaluronic acid injections could have very serious long-term consequences.

Need for exclusive Ring Road buses

Sir,

This refers to the two recent news items — 'Proposed Peripheral Ring Road' and 'Outer Ring Road to get 35 more traffic signals.'

The Mysuru Outer Ring Road was initiated in the 2000s and expanded during the 2010s. Yet, even today, there are no dedicated Ring Road buses operating. In contrast, the BMTC in Bengaluru had introduced its popular 500 series Ring Road buses way back in the 1990s.

There is significant commuter movement, especially along the western half of Mysuru's Ring Road — between Nanjangud Road and Bengaluru Road. Instead of proposing yet another Ring Road (Peripheral), our elected representatives should focus on improving the existing one by introducing dedicated public transport. It is time to introduce Ring Road-only buses and circular bus routes, an idea that has been proposed several times through SOM.

Tiger cub rescued; shifted to Bannerghatta

The Forest Department personnel who took part in the combing operation.

The rescued cub.

Mysuru, Nov. 13 (MTY&KS)- An eight-month-old male tiger cub, which was being spotted in Yelwal, Mysuru and at various villages in Hunsur taluk, has been rescued by the Forest Department on Nov. 11 night and has been shifted to the rehabilitation Centre at Bannerghatta Biological Park in Bengaluru.

This male cub was being spotted along with its mother and two other cubs at Yelwal, Aloka Road and near RMP on the outskirts of city and also at villages in Hunsur taluk. The cub had got separated from its mother and was spotted moving alone near villages since last week following which a team of officials from Hunsur Wildlife Sub-Division, Elephant Task Force and Leopard Task Force personnel and staff from Mysuru Division began to conduct combing operations to rescue the cub.

Meanwhile, villagers informed the Forest officials that the tiger cub was found wandering near Doddakadanahalli, Chikkakadanahalli, Ratnahalli, Halekamanakoppal, Hosakamanakoppal and Eerappanakoppal of Bilikere hobli in Hunsur taluk, following which camera traps were installed in over 30 locations and thermal drone was also deployed to trace the cub besides placing three to four cages to trap the cub.

The cub, which was suffering from hunger, got the scent of meat, which was placed inside a cage near Eerappanakoppal-Hosakamanakoppal villages, walked into the cage and got trapped.

As the cub had grown weak, it was shifted to the rehabilitation centre at Bannerghatta Biological Park in Bengaluru.

Meanwhile, Forest Department, with the help of a thermal drone camera, is monitoring the area to trace the mother and two other cubs, besides asking the villagers to inform Forest Dept. if they spot the tigress and her cubs.

Hunsur Division DCF Fayazuddin, Mysuru Wildlife Division DCF Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda, Mysuru DCF K. Paramesh and others took part in the operation.

Forest Dept. to take stern action against those creating fake news

Mysuru, Nov. 13 (MTY&KS)- The Forest Dept. has issued stern warning against those creating fake news by using Artificial Intelligence (AI) images and videos of wild animals which was unnecessarily creating panic among the villagers.

In a press release, the Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) of Hediyala Sub-Division in Nanjangud taluk of Mysuru district stated that the Forest Department conducted combing operations where tigers were spotted at several villages coming under Bandipur Tiger Reserve, rescued them and shifted to rehabilitation centres.

But still there were reports of tiger sighting on social media following which the Forest Department officials inspected the places but did not find any clues pertaining to tiger sighting, the press note said and added that some miscreants had created images of tigers using AI and spreading fake news on social media that tigers have moved into the villages which was creating panic and sense of fear among the villagers.

The ACF stated that spreading of fake news is a crime as per the law and stern action will be taken against those spreading fake news.

Wild elephant attack claims life in Kodagu

Another worker injured in separate incident

Hanumantha

Siddapur (Kodagu), Nov. 13 (KS)- An estate worker was killed while another narrowly escaped when a wild elephant attacked them at a coffee estate in Yemmegundi, Pollibetta, Virajpet taluk, recently.

The deceased has been identified as Hanumantha (57).

According to sources, a wild tusker had been sighted roaming around the Yemmegundi estate since morning. In the afternoon, it came face-to-face with a group of estate workers heading for lunch and charged at them. While one worker managed to flee, Hanumantha was caught and trampled to death. As the news of the death spread, workers from nearby estates suspended work and staged a protest, blaming the Forest Department for its failure to prevent elephant incursions.

The body was later shifted to Siddapur Hospital for post-mortem. Elected representatives, labourers and local leaders confronted Forest officials over the growing menace of wild elephants.

Former Zilla Panchayat Member Viju Subramani criticised the Forest Department's inaction and demanded the resignation of Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre.

Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) Gopal handed over a compensation cheque of Rs. 5 lakh to the victim's family, assuring that the remaining Rs. 10 lakh would be released soon.

Meanwhile, Range Forest Officer (RFO) Gangadhar, Deputy RFO Shashi and their team drove away a herd of 15 wild elephants that had been spotted in the coffee estates around Maldare. RFO Shivaram, former Taluk Panchayat Member Ajith Karumbaiah and labour leader Mahadev were present.

Another estate worker injured

In a separate incident last evening, a 60-year-old estate worker sustained serious injuries after being attacked by a wild elephant near Bilugundu Hosakote village, Virajpet.

The injured, Bellu Poonacha, a resident of Galibeedu Makkandur, was employed as a writer at the Muddinakad estate owned by Kanathanda Santosh.

Around 6 pm, as he was returning to the labourers' quarters, two wild elephants emerged from the thicket and charged. While others managed to escape, Poonacha hid behind a tree. One of the elephants, however, lifted him with its trunk and hurled him to the ground, causing a spinal fracture.

He was initially rushed to a nearby Government Hospital and later shifted to Madikeri Hospital for advanced treatment.

New auto fares in Mysuru from New Year

Come Jan. 1, minimum fare will go up to Rs. 36 from Rs. 30; Per-km charge beyond first 2-km to go up to Rs. 18 from Rs. 15

Mysuru, Nov.13 (MTY&DM)- The autorickshaw fares in city will go up by 20 percent from Jan. 1, 2026. This decision was taken at the Regional Transport Authority (RTA) meeting chaired by Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, who is also Distrct RTA Chairman, at the DC Office in Siddarthanagar here yesterday.

G. Lakshmikanth Reddy

As per the revision, the minimum fare will go up to Rs.36 from the present Rs.30 while the fare afterwards will go up to Rs.18 per kilometre from the present Rs.15. The DC asked RTO (Regional Transport Officer) Vasanth Eshwar Chauhan to make the revision effective from Jan.1, the New Year Day.

Earlier, members of the Auto Drivers and Owners Association, who took part in the meeting, said that auto fares had not been revised for several years in the district.

Pointing to the rising prices of fuel, spare parts, insurance premium and the cost of auto repairs, they urged the authorities to revise the fare. Responding to their plea, the DC said that the auto fare Regulatory Board will revise the fares in the State. However, this process will take a long time and as such the RTA is going to advise the RTO to upwardly revise the fare as prevalent at Bengaluru, with effect from Jan.1, 2026.

Badges to auto drivers

Stating that Insurance Companies will consider insurance premium payment only if the drivers have a badge, Reddy said as such, the Transport authorities must carry out special campaigns for distribution of badges to all auto drivers.

During the meeting, many members objected to the plying of Maharashtra and Kerala registered autos in the city without transfer of documents, which is mandatory. Responding to this, the DC asked the RTO officials to launch a 15-day special drive for checking of records and documents of non-Karnataka registered autos.

At the meeting, several auto drivers and owners urged the authorities not to issue permits for new autos. Maintaining that the number of autos plying in the city was much more than required, which has severely dented the income of auto drivers who have been in the profession for decades, they urged for ending the menace of Rapido bikes, white board taxis and such other vehicles, which have posed a severe threat to regular autos.

Pre-paid auto centres

Arguing that there has been pressure on pre-paid auto centres in the city, the drivers demanded opening of more pre-paid auto centres. They also suggested installation of CCTV cameras at such places.

Reacting to this, DCP (Crime and Traffic) K.S. Sundar Raj said that the Police personnel will be given suitable directions in this regard.

Mysuru (East) ARTO Madhura, Mysuru (West) ARTO Ramachandrappa, Hunsur ARTO Nayaz Pasha, Superintendents Manjunath and Shivakumar, Presidents and office-bearers of various Auto Associations — M.V. Srinivas Mitra, Shivakumar, Sowmya, Mahendra, Lakshmikanth, Ravi, Nagaraj, Somashekar and Ramesh — attended the meeting.

Lack of resemblance

D. Devaraj Urs statue in city to be replaced following public criticism

Mysuru, Nov. 13 (RK&DM)- Ten days after Chief Minister Siddaramaiah unveiled the statue of late former Chief Minister D. Devaraj Urs in the premises of new Deputy Commissioner's Office on Bannur Road in Siddarthanagar here, the Mysuru District Administration, bowing to public demand has decided to replace the statue, following a slew of complaints from various quarters that the statue hardly resembles the looks of the late former CM.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy said that after the statue was unveiled by CM Siddaramaiah on Nov.3, the District Administration began receiving multiple objections to the appearance of the statue, which many say has little resemblance of the physical looks of Urs.

Apart from the members of the public, many associations and organisations, including State BJP OBC Morcha President Raghu R. Kautilya and MLC A.H. Vishwanath had demanded replacement of the statue with a new one that truly resembles the late leader. This apart, some organisations had protested seeking replacement of the statue and demanded installation of a new one.

"Following widespread complaints and public disappointment over the facial features of the statue, the Chief Minister and the District In-charge Minister have directed the Mysuru District Administration to initiate the process of replacement of the statue. An official order on the replacement of the statue will be issued shortly," the DC noted.

It may be mentioned, NR MLA Tanveer Sait, MLC A.H. Vishwanath, the then Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra and Suraj Hegde, grandson of Devaraj Urs, had jointly performed bhoomi puja (ground-breaking ceremony) for the installation of the statue of Devaraj Urs, who hailed from Mysuru, in DC Office premises on Feb.19, 2024.

The 12 ft.tall statue, sculpted out of black granite and costing Rs.92 lakh, was unveiled by CM Siddaramaiah on Nov.3, 2025.

Now with the District Administration deciding to replace the statue, the public are of the opinion that Rs.92 lakh spent on the installation of the statue has gone down the drain.

Arguing that this money would have served other useful public purposes, they blamed the authorities for their negligence and apathy. The present statue in Mysuru that hardly resembles the looks of Devaraj Urs is indeed an insult to the late leader, they added.

Bengaluru statue

It may be recalled, the statue of Devaraj Urs installed in the precincts of Vidhana Soudha (West entrance) at Bengaluru, was also replaced following complaints that the statue had no similarity to the looks of Urs during 2003-2004.

DECODING MYTHOLOGY

Dr. Devdutt Pattanaik - Author, Speaker, Illustrator, Mythologist

Pigeon Spirituality

In Hindu mythology, the pigeon is more than just a bird. It is described as the vahana, or mount, of Rati-devi, the goddess of erotic arts and the consort of Kama-deva, the god of love and lust. Maybe that is the reason why many people in Mumbai feel feeding pigeons grants them good luck. These pious folks can be seen scattering grains around temples, housing societies, crossroads and street corners. But beneath this layer of piety lies a troubling contradiction.

The same people who feed pigeons in public cover their balconies and their temples with nets to keep the birds away. No one likes pigeon poop in their private and sacred spaces. Birds get trapped in these nets and die.

Also when pigeons breed in large numbers, they spread dangerous airborne diseases such as psittacosis, a lung infection that can be fatal. The more people feed them, the larger the flocks grow and the higher the risk of disease. Who is responsible for the suffering thus caused? Is the good karma earned by feeding pigeons negated by the bad karma of killing humans?

If you ask monks, gurus and spiritual leaders, who promote pigeon feeding, about these deaths, they offer evasive answers. This is where so-called compassion turns into lazy spirituality. It's easier to throw a few grains at a bird than to engage in genuine non-violence. True non-violence happens only when we fast to death, by voluntarily giving up all food and drink, an idea that was elaborated in ancient Jain scriptures.

Many pigeon feeders argue that animal rights trump all other concerns. They project their understanding of non-violence as granting them a moral and ethical high-ground. But it reveals ignorance. All consumption is violence. Vegetarianism denies its cost of consumption — wiping out forests, rodents, insects and pests. Industrialised farming is as bad as a slaughterhouse, as biodiversity is wiped out. Keeping pets and setting up private zoos is no alternative to natural forests.

The "non-violent" lobby uses all kinds of tricks to ban restaurants serving meat and seafood. Fisher folk are bribed not to sell fish during their festivals. Butchers are paid to shut their trade on "holy" days. Such acts are a subtle form of coercive conversion no different from missionary activity India witnessed in colonial times.

Who funds these monks who promote non-violence and vegetarian food? Those who make money from industries that pollute rivers, seas and air. India's biggest industrialists are vegetarians. Their wealth comes from infrastructure, chemical, real estate and mining industries. The "bad karma" of polluting the earth is cleansed by funding pigeon-saving media-savvy monks and cult leaders.

This is the contradiction at the heart of urban piety: symbolic acts of goodness masking real harm. Right now, the last forest cover of the city may be wiped out by "development". Mumbai's mangroves are being systematically destroyed. There is huge money to be made here — to fund monasteries and temples and elections, no doubt. As long as the developers are vegetarian, the monk who saves pigeons will probably not care about the environmental violence.

Dhwani Spandana in KSRTC buses of Mysuru bags Central Award

Mysuru, Nov. 13 (BLU&BS)- Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) has received 'Award of Excellence in Urban Transport' from the Central Government, for the successful implementation of Dhwani Spandana (Onboard bus identification and navigation system) in KSRTC buses operated in Mysuru city.

KSRTC Managing Director Akram Pasha received the award from Union Minister for Housing and Urban Affairs, Manohar Lal Khattar, at the awards presentation ceremony held in Haryana recently.

Dhwani Spandana was developed by Raised Lines Foundation, assisted by JEZ of Germany. It assists visually challenged persons to identify city buses easily and board the buses safely, by following voice-based directions. Over 400 visually challenged persons in city were trained to use this facility.

Apart from utilising the facility, the visually challenged feel confident and secure, that has brought bigger changes in travelling independently. Moreover, it is the first such project in India.

With the successful implementation of Dhwani Spandana, Mysuru adds to its list many such projects that were primarily implemented in city before replicating the same in other cities.

It may be mentioned, Transport Minister R. Ramalinga Reddy had inaugurated Dhwani Spandana in Mysuru City Bus Stand on July 14, 2025.

SC rejects Tamil Nadu's plea against Mekedatu project

New Delhi, Nov. 13 (Agencies)- In a major setback to Tamil Nadu, the Supreme Court (SC) this afternoon rejected to step into the Cauvery water-sharing dispute, dismissing Tamil Nadu's application against Karnataka's plan to construct Mekedatu dam.

The Supreme Court Bench comprising Chief Justice B.R. Gavai, Justice K. Vinod Chandran and Justice N.V. Anjaria, observed that Tamil Nadu's challenge to the order passed by the Central Water Commission (CWC) for the preparation of the Detailed Project Report (DPR) for the Mekadatu dam was "premature," as the plan would be approved only after considering the objections of the State as well as the opinion of the expert bodies, Cauvery Water Regulation Committee (CWRC) and the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA).

"At this stage, what is being done by the order passed by the CWC is only the preparation of the DPR, that too after taking into consideration the objections of the State of Tamil Nadu, the experts of the CWMA and CWRC. It is further to be noted that the CWC had further directed that the prior approval of the CWMA and CWRC would be a prerequisite for the consideration of the DPR. In that view of the matter, we find the present application to be premature," said the Bench.

Mekedatu project is a multi-purpose project proposed by Karnataka, which involves building a balancing reservoir near Kanakapura in Bengaluru South district.

However, Tamil Nadu has been objecting to the construction of the Mekedatu dam as it fears it will reduce the natural water flow and negatively impact its delta region and farmers.

'Drishya Raga Rangasangama' free theatre training camp begins

Mysuru, Nov. 13 (VVH&BS)- 'Drishya Raga Rangasangama,' a free theatre training camp organised by Karnataka Nataka Academy in association with Kannada and Culture Department and Suthra Foundation, Mysuru, was inaugurated by Administrative Officer of Chamarajendra Government College of Visual Arts (CAVA), Nirmala Mathapati, at Sriranga auditorium, Rangayana premises in the city on Monday.

Speaking on the occasion, Nirmala Mathapati said, theatre is the foundation of all art forms and the art which can be likened to kite and the artiste, can fly to dizzying heights. Be it any form of art or literary style, humanity should be developed on the foundation of humanitarian values. Or else, it cannot be classified as either literature or art. Most importantly, theatre acts as a therapy to the internal squabbles among human beings, followed by jealousy, hatred and greed, she said.

Dr. Jahida Kodagu, Member of Karnataka Nataka Academy said, theatre which is society-oriented and awakens society through plays, has nowadays become costly, with the very art form being used for monetary gain.

"With the extensive usage of TV, mobile phone and social media, the youngsters have become isolated. Hence, youngsters should lean towards theatre, which creates awareness on lifestyle, experience, mental balance, diversified ways of life and its extension," advised Dr. Jahida.

Joint Director of Kannada and Culture Department V.N. Mallikarjunaswamy, former Mysuru District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President M. Chandrashekar, Theatre Music Director Chandrashekarachar and Founder-Secretary of Suthra Foundation G. Jagadish Kumar were present on the occasion.

The 25-day free theatre training camp is being held at the rehearsal room in Kalamandira premises from Nov. 10 to Dec. 5 between 6 pm and 8.30 pm.

WORD OF THE DAY

Abide

Pronunciation: uh-BYDE (verb)
Meaning: If someone cannot abide someone or something bad, unpleasant, etc., they cannot tolerate or accept that person or thing. Abide can also mean "to accept without objection" and "to remain or continue."
Origin: Abide has abided in the English language since before the 12th century, picking up along the way several meanings and inflections that are now rare or no longer in use. For instance, one of abide's former meanings was "to stop" and its former past participle was abidden (whereas we now use abided or abode). Today, abide often turns up in the phrase "can't abide" to say that someone cannot tolerate or accept something. The expression abide by, which means "to accept and be guided by (something)," is also common. Related terms include abiding, meaning "continuing for a long time" or "not changing" (as in "an abiding friendship"), abidance ("continuance" or "the act or process of doing what you have been asked or ordered to do"), and abode ("the place where someone lives").
Example: "If a legal party ... doesn't like a district court ruling, it is free to challenge the decision to a federal appellate court and then the Supreme Court. But while the appeal plays out, the legal party must abide by the ruling." — Will Rogers, The Baltimore Sun, 22 July 2025.

THE ODD WORD

Freyr

God of earth's fertility, peace and prosperity.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Tag along

Meaning: The phrase 'Tag along' means to follow along after someone; to go along with someone.
Origin: Although the origin of the phrase 'Tag along' isn't known, it first appeared in print in 1900. Its meaning, "follow along", comes from the late 17th century, though the word 'tag' was first used as a noun in the 15th century. A related secondary meaning, "following persistently and closely" dates back to 1884.
Example: "The family dog tagged along after children wherever they went."
